Apollo Film Festivals

Festival Films at Apollo Cinemas

Apollo Piccadilly Circus has been the venue for some great festivals, including the famous Raindance Film Festival and the recent SCI-FI LONDON Film Festival.

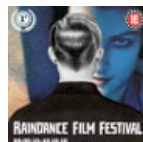

The next festival to be held at Apollo Piccadilly Circus, from the 2nd to the 5th of September 2010, is the 2nd Brazilian Film Festival of London which represents

"... a unique opportunity for communication between Brazil and the UK and consolidates a platform for the exposition and visibility of Brazilian audiovisual content on the biggest cultural stage in Europe. This is an important initiative to launch new business for both countries". (Adriana Dutra, Infinito Director)
